Do you believe in the cause?

I love watching some of those TV dramas of rescue workers who put themselves in the line of danger every day and do these heroic rescues that defy odds. And while I do know that there are parts of the show that could be spiced up for the screen, seeing these shows where these heroes are giving themselves to a cause they believe in so that someone can be saved is captivating. And of course, as I watch the TV shows, I am always reminded of our real life, everyday First Responders who deal with many of those challenges and will put it all on the line because they believe in the cause of saving people.

Do you believe in His cause?

Sharing the message of Jesus is not easy stuff. It is challenging. It will move many of us out of our natural comfort zones. It could carry a level of personal cost. But do we believe in the cause? Do we believe that the message of hope, forgiveness, freedom, and wholeness is that important, that valuable, and that life-changing that we will give ourselves to it as well, counting the risk as just something that is a part of a greater result?

-Pastor Dave
